The Maritime Museum of San Diego has one of the world’s finest collections of historic vessels, including the world’s oldest active ship Star of India. Our fleet and exhibits are available for daily public tours.

ON-THE-WATER ADVENTURES INCLUDE:
- Historic Bay Tours
- Tall Ship Charters
Groups of 10-20 Historic Bay Tour Aboard 1914 San Diego Pilot boat or Vietnam-era PCF 816 Swift boat. Additional $10-$15 per person (all ages) with purchase of general admission ticket.

Docent Guided Tours

Guided tours are led by trained and knowledgeable museum docents who bring history to life through storytelling. Tours typically encompass visits to a number of ships including Star of India, HMS Surprise, San Salvador, USS Dolphin Submarine, the 1898 steam ferry Berkeley and 1904 steam yacht Medea. Admission includes entrance to all below-deck galleries and exhibits. Any tour can be designed to emphasize particular interests such as subjects related to a school curriculum. Available 9:30am - 2:00pm
