PACIFIC HERITAGE TOUR 2023

VOYAGE OF EXPLORATION

CHANNEL Islands ADVENTURE SAILING EXPERIENCE

Adventure AWAITS.
SEAFARERS Wanted.

Adventure Sailing legs on the Pacific Heritage Tour 2023 are for people who love history and sailing. Very few people have sailed on galleons of the sixteenth century and on our San Salvador sailing legs when public will get a chance to see California through the eyes of explorers.

New entertaining and educational programs on Channel Islands archeology and natural resources, Spanish seafaring history, Cabrillo's journey, California's origin story, and first peoples encounters with the unknown will be led by a group of world-renowned historians and educators.

Join us as we set sail for these unique tall ship experiences. For the novice or the experienced sailor, each leg allows passengers the opportunity to join the crew with sail training lessons and shipboard activities including hands-on demonstrations and practical experience of traditional and celestial navigation, cartography, and sail handling, including knots.

No experience necessary, only good attitudes for uncharted adventure.

PACIFIC HERITAGE TOUR 2023

VOYAGE OF EXPLORATION

San Salvador will embark with a group of world-renowned historians and educators who will give lectures to the rest of the ship's company, along with standing watch, steering, and sail handling with expedition participants.

HISTORIANS AND EDUCATORS ABOARD INCLUDE:

Dr. Jim Cassidy is an archeologist and expert on the prehistoric maritime migrations to the Americas. He is co-author of California Maritime Archeology and has published numerous articles on North Pacific maritime prehistory. Jim is a former Regional Archeologist for the U.S. and is currently archeologist for the Maritime Museum of San Diego, former Director of the Museum's docent training program, and a qualified crew for the Museum's fleet of historic vessels.

Dr. Raymond Ashley is President/CEO of the Maritime Museum of San Diego and Captain of the San Salvador. Dr. Ashley has been Director of the Maritime Museum since 1995, curator of ships, contributor to the Museum's academic journal Mains'l Haul, and spearheaded the San Salvador project. Dr. Ashley holds a Coast Guard license for 200 tons, Master of Sail and teaches History of Navigation for the Museum's Educational Program. In addition to the above, MMSD President/CEO Dr. Ashley has been knighted by the King of Spain for his contribution to Spanish seafaring history.

Susan Sirota, Vice President, Operations for the Maritime Museum of San Diego, joined the staff in 1998 and has led the Development and Education departments since 2001. Susan designed the Pacific Heritage Tour and passenger programming. Well versed in science and environmental programs, public outdoor and living history program development for the Museum, Susan will engage and educate guests with an island ecology and natural history program.
