Californian Crew Responsibilities by Position Assigned v7 7 25 23

Line Captains

Setting sail

Line handling instructions to guest crew

Choose a belay person

Starboard-usually an inner line handler

Port-usually a staysail, outer, or brace line handler

Assure belay person takes down outhauls and downhauls

Eases peak to release button

Gives line handling commands to crew and guests on lines

Passes stoppers on main and fore halyards

When setting foresail makes sure halyard passes aft beneath gaff vang rig

Chooses member of guest crew to tend gaff vang when setting foresail

Checks to be sure that belay of halyards is done properly

Headsails-makes sure downhauls have been taken off dog rail pins and are tended

Monitors sails as they are hoisted, watches for problems

Dousing sail

Ease halyards

Headsails

Takes strain on halyard after downhauls are made fast then belays Main/fore

Checks that lifts are hard on the fore and the main before dousing Throat halyard-Gently eases halyard until boom is tabled-makes call-tabled

Line captain on throat leads, peak follows

Coordinates to make sure sails come down smoothly

Throat-Controls sail as shoe is positioned inside uppermost mast hoop

Peak-controls sail at the end of dousing to help mate pass the button

Takes strain on halyards and belays after sails are doused.

Belay position

Setting sail

Frees outhauls and downhauls on main and fore

Belays halyards to proper pins

Secures outhauls and down hauls on main and fore after each sail is set Dousing sail-foresail and mainsail

Responsible for outhauls and downhauls. Recruits assistant to help haul outhauls and downhauls

Staysail

Mans staysail preventer and sheets

Tacks lifts on the foresail

Setting headsails-Tends staysail sheets

Dousing headsails-tends staysail sheets

Setting squares-fife rail captain-makes calls to first mate

Dousing squares-fife rail captain.

casts off topsail sheets

Inner

Mans inner sheets

Bow watch

Setting headsails-Mans inner sheets

Setting squares:

Topsail-hauls sheets

frees topgallant sheets from pin

Topgallant-hauls sheets

Dousing squares:

Topgallant-casts off topgallant sheets; also (may assist outer on bunts)

Topsail-hauls reef lines (on clew down)

hauls bunts

Dousing headsails-tends inner sheets

Outer

Mans outer sheets

Tacks lifts on mainsail

If idle, may be assigned rigging fore and main preventers by mate

If idle, may assist running out and stowing guns if assigned by mate

Setting headsails-tends outer sheets

Setting squares:

Topsail-tends clews, reefs, bunts

Topgallant-tends clews, bunts

Dousing Squares-

Topgallant-hauls clews and bunts

Topsail-hauls clews

Dousing headsails-tends outer sheets

Brace Bench

Hauls braces

If idle, may be assigned rigging of main and fore preventers by mate

If idle, may be assigned running out and stowing guns by mate

Setting headsails- mans/tends downhauls

belays downhauls after halyards made fast

Setting squares

Topsail-3 people man topsail halyard

one person tends braces

Topgallant-3 people man topgallant halyard

one person tends braces

Dousing squares-

Topgallant-one person eases topgallant halyard

Topsail-one person eases topsail halyard

Dousing headsails-man/haul downhauls.

Belays downhauls to dog rail.

Dousing foresail and mainsail-anyone without a specific line assignment is responsible to help pass gaskets, flake sails, and make up gaskets.

Notice: The information contained within is not sanctioned by the Maritime Museum of San Diego. It is meant to assist with training of new crewmembers but is my creation only. It may be used by others as an unofficial reference source. Robert A. Kaye, September 2018. 928-503-7596 bobkaye542@yahoo.com